VARIETY SHOW

"That's Entertainment" was this year's theme for Schaumburg High School's annual Variety Show, which took place on November 17 and 18. Thirty-four acts auditioned this year and the faculty sponsors had the difficult task of narrowing it down to 15 acts which performed. The master of ceremonies was Joe Brush, he introduced the various singing, dancing skits, musical compositions, and even a twirling act. The Choir, comedy troupe, and Modern Dance Club performed many enjoyable numbers to complete the show.

The winner of the 1978 Variety Show was Natalie Gong, who performed a marvelous ballet to the song "Do You Know". She was chosen by eight judges who are each professionals when it comes to talent. The 1978 Variety Show was enjoyable and a pleasure to see, as always.

FALL PLAY

MURDER AT THE VICARAGE by Agatha Christie

Very early in the play, MURDER AT THE VICARAGE, Colonel Protheroe (Ron Finzel) was found slumped over the desk in the study - very, very DEAD! It was soon established that the Colonel had accumulated a good many enemies throughout the years. Actually, everyone had a motive, including Agatha Christie's famous female sleuth, Miss Marple!

The Vicar (Michael Scheitler) was a most impressive man-of-the-cloth! His wife, Griselda (Deidre Mc Auliffe) was clearly of a different makeup, but obviously very much in love with her more mature husband. Dennis (Tony Reardon) the Vicar's nephew, was much the man-of-the-hour type, and madly in love with Lettice Protheroe, the Colonel's daughter. Ronald Hawes (Daniel Ness) the curate, was a very hypersensitive individual, evidently attempting to "find himself" in the seclusion of the vicarage. Mary (Shelly Elman) the maid, was a bit outspoken - for her station in life, but as a result was a most entertaining part of the household!

Miss Marple, a favorite of all Agatha Christie fans, was superbly portrayed by Laura Heath, who was aware of everyone's thoughts and deeds! Lettice Protheroe (Siobhan O'Brien) did a fine job of keeping Dennis at arms-length, while chasing after handsome Lawrence Redding, the artist! Lawrence Redding (Scott Billing) was a self assured, calculating, dashing lover who had everyone, except Miss Marple, under his spell!! Mrs Price-Ridley (Janis Kropsch) was indeed the lady with the "airs" - forever suspicious and never trusting anyone! Ann Protheroe (Jessica New) the attractive not-so-heartbroken widow, presented a very believable picture of a woman completely taken in by Redding's scheme! Dr. John Haydock (Bob Panattoni) the very professional physician, and Inspector Slack (Sean Hurley) - almost another James Bond - both portrayed very realistic characters!

This play was full of excitement and suspense from beginning to end. The cast, the makeup people, and the technical crew (under the capable direction of Mr Keith Burt) all contributed to an OUTSTANDING performance! Mr Tom Egan and Miss Beverly Bailey can be very proud of their students - they learned their "lessons" WELL!!

'GEORGE M!'

On Friday, April 6 and Saturday, April 7 the Schaumburg High School Music Department presented the musical "George M!"

George M! combines a rather inaccurate biography of the late George M. Cohan with the many patriotic melodies he wrote to form a red, white, and blue salute to Broadway. The Cohan family consisted of Nellie-Chris Wallace, Jerry-Rob' Loar, Josie Pat Norkus, and George-Tom Jones. The Cohan family got their start on the vaudeville circuit. Fame and George's determination pushed them to Broadway, adding Ethel (played by Kim Stack), George's wife, to the song-dance team. After several flops, George's first success on Broadway was "Give My Regards to Broadway" and original Cohan masterpiece

In the midst of professional success, Ethel divorces George. Later he married chorus girl, Agnes (played by Siobhan O'Brien). The spring musical was enjoyed by all who attended.

Romanoff and Juliet

The whole cast of Romanoff and Juliet did a fantastic job, and their efforts payed off. The results: The play was a success

As the general said of his tiny country.

"Do visit our country, if you can. All you need do is to shut your eyes, and in the night, with tranquil minds and softly beating hearts, you will find us here the realm of sense, of gentleness, of love

Romanoff and Juliet is a take-off of Shakespeare's play Romeo and Juliet. Romanoff and Juliet is a comedy but yet a political satire.

The setting of the play is the main square in the capital city of the smallest country in Europe. This is where two young people fall in love, Tgor Romanoff and Juliet Moubworth. The conflict is that Tgor Romanoff is from Russia and Juliet is from America. Both Tgor's parents and Juliet's parents are ambassadors. They must find a way to get married without their parents knowing.

The Moubworth family: Sean Hurley portrayed Hooper Moubworth, the father of Juliet. Laura Pulio portrayed Beulah Moubworth, the mother of Juliet. Juliet Moubworth was portrayed by Jessica New

The Romanoff family: Marlon Kleenman was Vadini Romanoff, the father of Tgor. Deidre McAuliffe was Evodokia Romanoff, the mother to Tgor. Scott Harris was Tgor Romanoff. The Russian spy was portrayed by Shelly Eleman. Jr. Capt. Marfa Zlotochienko was portrayed by Janis Kropsh. Mike Schietler was Freddie Vanderstuyt. Bob Panattoni was The General. Dan Ness portrayed the part of the Archbishop. Sylvia Diaz portrayed the part as the second soldier and Chris Kraig was the first soldier.

Orchesis Show Can't Stop Dancin'

Orchesis Show
By Margaret Pollowy

On May 4th and 5th, Schaumburg High School had its first true orchesis show. The theme was "Can't Stop Dancin'" and in the seventeen numbers, the dancers showed the audience just that.

Announcer Bob Panattoni introduced all of the dances which were choreographed by the orchesis club members. They were greatly varied in subject matter, from the disco "I Will Survive" to "Rock Around the Clock" to "Music Box Dancer". Highlights of the show were the numbers "Mandy" by Natalie Gong, "A Night of Jazz" by Sharon May, "If They Could See Me Now" by Scott Billings, and "Turn The Beat Around" by Scott Billings, Natalie Gong, Sharon May, Missy Momon, Carla Montes, Donna Podraza, and Jill Zerla.

All in all, the show was a lively success, and the four months of preparation were obvious.

International Dinner

INTERNATIONAL DINNER

The faculty and students of the Foreign Language Department joined together to sponsor their 9th annual international dinner on Wednesday, March 14, in the high school cafeteria. Place mats, programs, and decorations all carried out the theme "Shake Hands with the World." Elegant dinners representing the cuisine of France, Germany, and Spain highlighted the evening. Students provided entertainment for the enjoyment of approximately 250 guests. The dinner proved to be an evening of fun and good food for all who attended.

Always And Forever

The Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Schaumburg High School Junior class, was as successful as always

The dance was held at the Chateau Ritz. After a dinner of boneless chicken and rice, everyone danced to the sounds of the Debonaires.

"Always and Forever" was the theme for the 27th of April. The queen, Sandy Harris, and her court, attendants Julie Caldwell and Julie Shaftic, were introduced.

DISTRICT 211 BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education consists of seven members who are elected by the communities served by District 211. Each member has a three year term. Elections are held each spring.

Robert Creek has been Board president for nine years. Under his leadership, the Board of Education has enacted several major changes for the students and staff in District 211. Two important changes are also the most recent: increasing the English graduation requirement to four units and implementing a testing program for minimum essential skills for the areas of mathematics and English.

The Board of Education voted for these changes to assure that the students of District 211 would have a quality educational program and a meaningful high school diploma. Recently a survey was conducted to judge the feelings of parents, students, administrators, and teachers toward the educational goals of District 211. The results have shown that these changes made by the Board are in line with educational philosophy of the community and staff of District 211.

The same foresight and planning procedures which have been used to guide educational policy making have been used to guide financial decisions. The district's strong financial condition is a source of pride. Careful management by the Board of Education has allowed the tax rate to decrease over the past seven years.

The Board of Education realized today's high school students are tomorrow's residents and leaders. The students in District 211 are offered the opportunity to receive the best education available for these roles.

We'll Change With Each Passing Year. But The Memories Will Last Forever

Of This One Single Year.

At this time the yearbook staff would like to extend their thanks to the following people for their help with the 1978-79 yearbook.

Miss Gail Stine & all her typing classes for their help with the typing of pages for this yearbook

Mrs. Keyser & Mrs. Templeton for their help in selling & proofreading the yearbook

Corry Smith for all his help with the artwork

Thank you all very much for all of your tremendous efforts. Without your help this yearbook could not have been complete.
